

Stay tuned for new MESTRI-CE Publication

What is it?

- ✓ Early access to the Smart Data Hub's core features
- ✓ Clear, step-by-step instructions for better building management
- ✓ Designed to support smarter, more sustainable renovation planning

Why download this guide?

- ✓ Early access to the Smart Data Hub's core features
- ✓ Clear, step-by-step instructions for better building management
- ✓ Designed to support smarter, more sustainable renovation planning

Who is it for?

This guide is for anyone with an interest in smarter building management.

Whether you manage buildings, advise on energy renovations, or shape local policy – this guide helps you make informed, data-driven decisions.

- Building managers
- Public authorities
- Energy service providers
- Sustainability consultants
- Housing associations

What will you learn?

📌 Fundamentals of effective building management

📌 How to collect and use building data

📌 How to simulate renovation options and track climate impact

📌 Where to find supporting tools and resources

Key features of the SDH

Explore three key modules

 Portfolio – Organize and assess your building stock

 Property – Add building-level data and performance indicators

 Planning – Create and compare renovation plans with energy and cost impacts

Stay tuned for more...

...and gain early insight into the MESTRI-CE Smart Data Hub and prepare for smarter, more efficient building management.